

TUTORIAL QUESTIONS

1. What features distinguish teaching from Instruction?
2. What features distinguish instruction from training?
3. Do you think teachers are born or made?
4. What questions do teachers have to ask themselves when they are planning instruction?
5. What factors should a teacher consider in the various steps in a lesson?
6. Why do teachers need to plan lessons when there are lessons they can use from the internet?
7. Do lesson plans need to be vetted? Why?
8. What resources should teachers consult when planning their lessons?
9. What similarities do you find between the traditional and the brain-based principles of teaching?
10. What differences do you find between the traditional and the brain-based principles of teaching?
11. What actions should teachers take in planning and teaching their lessons to ensure that they communicate effectively with their learners. Consider these actions in terms of the physical, social and psychological environment of the classroom.
12. Do you think teachers who are trained in teaching ought to teach better than those not trained? Why?